

RUTH HENDERSON ENGAGED TO WED

Her Betrothal to H. Woodward
McDowell Is Announced by
Father, Editor and Poet

SHE IS COLUMBIA STUDENT

Fiance, Graduate of Brooklyn
Law School, to Take Science
Degree Next Month

Daniel Henderson of 360 Riverside Drive and South Orange, N. J., has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Ruth Henderson, to H. Woodward McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra O. McDowell of Maplewood, N. J.

The prospective bride, who is descended from Colonial Maryland and North Carolina families, made her début at the Bachelors Cotillion in Baltimore in 1935. Her father is an author, editor and poet. Miss Henderson was graduated from Kent Place School, Summit, N. J., in 1932, and in 1936 from Swarthmore College. She is now a student at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Mr. McDowell, who attended Lehigh University and was later graduated from the Brooklyn Law School, expects to receive his Bachelor of Science degree from Lehigh this June. He is with the Guaranty Trust Company of this city.

New York Times Studio Photo.
Miss Ruth Henderson